Gesche Buecker Gesche creates one-off stoneware ceramics in bright and beautiful colours in her garden workshop in Preston, Paignton. The workshop is open for appointments during Devon Open Studios – please phone 07909 326103

David Kelly Devon's colourful, varied landscape has rekindled and reanimated my painting style. I am now finding ways for my paintings to grow. Sometimes abstract sometimes not. Often vibrant. Hope you enjoy.

Mark Bell Mark Bell's vibrant, richly textured, colourful artworks can be inspired by eclectic musicians, dancers and nature depicting movement, fluid lines and form. His studio is based in The Lucky 7 Club, a secret speakeasy style first floor venue hidden away in the heart of Paignton, it is a unique arts & events space.

Cockington Court Galleries Take a journey into the amazing world of sculptor Nik Burns! Nik links nature with machine and experiments with wood metal and found objects. His sculptures are on show inside the Galleries and outside Cockington Court, being also part of Cockington Court Sculpture Trail 22.

James Murch "I am a fine artist working in various mediums, currently focusing primarily on landscape/floral studies and portraiture, producing a mixture of direct studies from life and more intensive studio pieces. I like to spend time exploring colour effects and the placement of each element within a work, always taking inspiration from the design and pattern of creation."

Artizan Gallery Visit Torbay Grant winner, Ash Raddon's studio. Ash is a watercolour painter with an impressionist approach who this year was a contestant on Watercolour Challenge. The Sculpture Studio returns for a third year welcoming new collections from accomplished sculptors. Devon Masters showcases work from Richard Slater R.I. & Arthur Homeshaw R.W.A.

Artizan Collective - Above & Below In association with the Time & Tide Bell Project (in partnership with Prof Corinna Wagner (University of Exeter), Artizan brings you an exhibition of curated works and artefacts that call communities to action in a collective response to the threats facing our coastlines and wider environment.

Artizan Creative Spaces Claire Harmer, William Mills & Ian Cox open their working studios at Artizan Collective. Two painters and a printmaker. Claire's abstract explorations of the Riviera coastline, William's bold, atmospheric, abstracts, and Ian's narrative printmaking exploring the coastal and moorland landscapes of Devon & Cornwall.

Mandy Ellis Voisey "The Mill's idyllic setting has unhurriedly but naturally led me towards art. Primarily portraiture but I also love painting flora, fauna and landscapes."

Simon Ashby My work is conducted en plein air using oils. I'm lucky to live in Torbay and particularly love to paint Meadfoot beach and surrounds.

CLOSED

Lee Pover Creating wonderful scenes in ceramics, driftwood & things found on local beaches, capturing the atmosphere of local fishing villages, ports & harbours.

Art Bank Collective - Lili John, Bev Knowlden, Jo Gosling, Julia Finzel, Susan Purser Hope, Anne Henriksen, Helen Allen, Sally Law A collective of women artists exhibiting at Lupton House, a Grade II building set in beautiful parkland on the outskirts of Brixham. Including an eclectic mix of artworks, workshops & late night shopping.

Susan Purser Hope I am an artist working with fused glass, recently moved to Devon to fulfil my lifetime's ambition to live by the sea and enjoy big skies. All my work is individually designed and hand made in my Brixham studio. It highlights the beauty of glass, the way it reflects colour, texture and light.

Rhian Wyn Harrison Vintage books and maps inspire colourful and witty illustrations, featuring coastal birds, sealife and wildlife. UNESCO Geopark artist. Original art, prints and greeting cards. Commissions welcome.

Rose Elliott & Catherine Bedford Discover Rose's striking abstractionist watercolours and handpainted/printed textiles as framed paintings inspired by natural form, plus 'Wearable Art' - silk tops, scarves. And Catherine's analogic black & white silver gelatin photographic prints, looking at figures in the geometry of landscape.

Mandy Ellis Voisey "The Mill's idyllic setting has unhurriedly but naturally led me towards art. Primarily portraiture but I also love painting flora, fauna and landscapes."

Claire Burston I am a fine artist, using mixed media art techniques. I like to immerse myself in the landscape to capture the true essence of a scene. Painting out in the open helps me to capture the true soul of Brixham. Tea and Coffee with the artist, Saturdays, 3-5pm.

Other Venues Visit Torre Abbey and discover the International Agatha Christie Festival, a huge programme of events dedicated to the world's best loved crime author including costume exhibition 'Dressed to Kill' (paid entry).
